

Murals for Justice!

When we get back from fall break, everyone will be so excited to see the murals we have created on the walls of the school.

Monday we will explore Tucson and many of the beautiful murals around town. Starting Monday afternoon we will brainstorm ideas and sketch our plans.

Tuesday through Thursday will be serious work days.

We will have some fun snacks and breaks.

We are lucky to have two local artists join us for our work. Margo Wallace, who has done many murals with students at City high. My sister Isabel, who is a local artist, will also be around to help.

Our goal is to create a beautiful mural for our school that also makes a statement about our school's devotion to social justice. All students will work hard on the mural and take part in the design and completion.

Monday:

Morning: out in Tucson looking at community murals

Afternoon: at school drawing, designing and learning mural techniques.

Tuesday-Thursday: at school working on the mural.

Any questions or concerns please email, text or call.
